General Notes (Husband)

!MARRIAGE: Certificate of Marriage, Chickasaw County, Iowa; 6 January 1886.

After the death of his mother, Ingeborg Jensdotter, Jens lived for 3 years with his uncle(oncle) Ole Anderson and his maternal aunt (tante) Anna Jensdotter. Jens also lived with his maternal uncle Attle Jenson Atleson.

Jens was a stone mason, brick layer, plasterer and cement worker by trade. Jens and Ragnilda were married by D.B. Sneden, JP; the ceremony was witnessed by James & Cari Otteson.

In 1925, Jens was a patient at the Mayo Clinic; he suffered from arthiritis for 35 years.

Jens wrote his Last Will and Testament on 24 February 1922. His wife Nellie was named executrix and only benificiary. The inventory included; lot 2, block 47, and lot 2, block 1, Park addition. (Intersection of Main and Maple Streets.)

The Obituary for Jim Johnson cites his death date as the morning of 22 Janaury, but the Certificate of Death cites the time of death as 2:00 AM, 23 January 1931, age 68 year, 6 month, 23 days.

OBITUARY - JIM JOHNSON DIED FROM HEART ATTACK
Splendid Man, Always Active, Is Called In His Sixty-ninth Year

James Johnson, the brick and stone mason, died at his home in New Hampton, Thursday morning, January 23, 1931. Death was due to enlargement of the heart (myocarditis). He had been sick but a week.

The deceased was born in Dane County, Wisconsin, July 1, 1862. He was married on January 6, 1886, to Miss Nellie Olson.

To this union five children were born, two of whom died in infancy, and three of whom with their mother, remain to mourn his death. The living children are John of Sacramento, California, Mildred at home, but a student in Columbia University, New York City, and Harold of Columbus, Ohio. He also leaves one grandson, one sister, Mrs. Nels Johnson of Adams, Minnesota, and one brother, John Johnson of Minot, North Dakota.

His funeral services were held on Monday afternoon from the Crane Creek Lutheran Church, and burial was in that parish cemetery. Services were conducted by the pastor, Reverend H. O. Finstad.

Jim Johnson was a fine old man and many are sorry that he has been called from earth. He was a man of good habits, moral character, sturdy constitution and he continued to be active in his accustomed pursuits, that of stone mason, brick laying, plastering and

!PROBATE: Probate Inventory, undated, District Court, Chickasaw County, Iowa.

The (Old) Luster Parish Register contains the following: "Ragnhild Olsdotter, born out of wedlock by bachelor Ole Johannesen Borlaug from Leikanger Parish, and maiden Martha Halvorsdotter Faaberg in Vigdal." Witnesses at the christening were Johannes Thomassen Kilen (1823-1903), Guttorm Guttormsen Kilen (1837-1876), Kari Olsdotter Dalsøren, Synneva Olsdotter Kilen (1836-1911) and Martha Larsdotter Faaberg. Ragnhild was not Christened at home after the birth. The birth out of wedlock was reported to the minister by the crofter Johannes Thomassen Kilen (1823-1903). As far as is known, this was the first child born out of wedlock by either parent.

Ragnhild was probably born on the Vigdal farm (#36), the home of Ole Olson Haugen (1825-1910) and Torborg Halvorsdotter Faaberg (1832-1892), Ragnhild's mother's sister. The 1865 Census of Luster recorded Ragnhild Olsdotter as the "foster child" of Ole Olson and Torborg Halvorsdotter.

In 1865,the Vigdal farm was a part of the Dale church area. However, about 100 years ago, the Vigdal farm was, for practical and geographic reasons (accessability), transfered to the Gaupne church area.

Ragnhild "Wigdahl", age 2, from Luster, emigrated from the Port of Bergen, on 23 April 1867, aboard the ship "Claus Heftye". The ship landed at Quebec, Canada on 28 May 1867. Ragnhild was accompanied by her mother "Marthe Halversdatter Faaberg, age 25, Ole Olson Wigdahl (age 41) & wife Thorborg (age 35) and their children Ole (age 13) and Eli (age 5); Rasmus Olsen Wigdahl (age 22), Sjur Anderson Faaberg (age 30), and Marthe Hansdotter Faaberg (age33), all from Luster.

After the death of her mother in September 1869, Nellie went to live with her Uncle Ole Flatjord, and his wife Torborg Halvorsdotter Haugen, near Jerico, Jacksonville Township, Chickasaw County, Iowa.

Nellie and Jens were married by D.B. Sneden, JP; witnesses were James & Cari Otteson. After 1886 Nellie gave birth to an un-named female who died in infancy. On 30 Nov 1888 Nellie gave birth to an un-named son who died in infancy, Dr. Ira K. Gardiner recorded her maiden name as Nellie Oleson Flatis.

In June 1915 Nellie was treated in the Mayo Clinic for mild anemia. In July 1920 she was again admitted to the Mayo Clinic for a pain in her arm which followed the flu. In April 1921 she was again admitted to the Mayo Clinic.

Nellie is the Grandmother of James H. Johnson, the compiler of this family history.

OBITUARY: New Hampton Tribune, Volume 60, No 28, page 12, column 2 Date: July 9, 1936 Mrs. Nellie Johnson Passed Away On Sunday July 5th. Born in Norway, came to this country when a small child, remains were buried at Crane Creek Mrs. Nellie JOHNSON, age 70 years, 5 months and 3 days, died at her home on East Main Sunday afternoon, July 5, at 3:35, following an illness of five months. A short time ago she submitted to a very serious operation for a tumor of the stomach, hoping that it would improve her health, but she grew steadily worse. Everything possible was done for her but her sickness did not respond to treatment. Nellie OLSON was born in Norway, February 2, 1865. When a very small child she came to this country with her parents. Shortly after their arrival her parents both died leaving her an orphan at an early age. She was reared in the home of an uncle, Ole Flatjord, of Crane Creek. Her early education was received in the schools of this county. On January 6, 1886, she became the bride of James JOHNSON of New Hampton, who died January 22, 1931. Five children were born to them; one son and one daughter preceded their mother in death. Those who survive are John of Oakland, California, Harold of Columbus, Ohio, and Mildred at home. Besides her children she is survived by one grandson, James, of Columbus, Ohio.

Following her marriage the family lived on a farm near New Hampton, later moving to this city. Mrs. JOHNSON was a member of the Crane Creek Lutheran church. She was a faithful worker in the Women's Relief Corps of this city. She was a devoted wife and mother, a kind neighbor and a true friend. By these qualities she had endeared herself to all whose lives she touched. Funeral services were held Tuesday, July 7, at 1 o'clock, at the home and 2:00 o'clock at the Crane Creek Lutheran church. Rev. H.M. Finstad conducted the services.

Members of the Martha Mission furnished music for the service at the home. Burial was made in the Crane Creek cemetery. Those from out of town who attend the funeral were Mrs. Nels JOHNSON, Mrs. Nordine TORGERSON, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace JOHNSON and Mr. and Mrs. Edwin JOHNSON, all of Adams, Minnesota.

In memory of MRS. JAMES JOHNSON we extend our deepest sympathy to all who mourn the death of Mrs. JOHNSON. In the passing of Mrs. James JOHNSON we feel the loss of an estimable woman, neighbor and friend whose kind words and deeds endeared her to all with whom she met. Her cheerful conversation was always an uplift to Mrs. MILLS. Mrs. JOHNSON was at all times just her self "Nellie", a person of rare integrity. For more than a half century we have heartily enjoyed "Nellie" as best of friends. Mills family.

Again the Master beckoned and one of our faithful sisters heard the call and gently her spirit winged its way to Him who gave it. She was faithful to every trust and down through the years her untiring labor in behalf of the Relief corps will stand as a monument to her memory. The tender sympathy of this Women's Relief corps, A.P. Morton post, No 69, is extended to her sons and daughter. Not dead, but only promoted. She has entered the Order above, And there 'neath the smiles of the Master, She will finish her labors of love. The next regular meeting of the Corps will be Tuesday, July 14th. --Mable Thorson, Press Cor.

John was Initiated as an Apprentice in the Masonic Lodge, Mt. Moriah # 24, Butte, Montana, on 10 May 1933. When John moved to Oakland, California, he transfered his membership to Foothille Lodge # 564.

John worked for many different railroads and in many different occupations. One interesting, though short lived, occupation was as a Conductor on the San Francisco, Napa & Calistoga Railway (aka Napa Valley Railroad). This railway was incorporated in 1864, the first train passed through the Napa Valley on 11 July 1865. The prime comodities that were shipped included silver & hay. In 1987 the line was sold to the Napa Valley Wine Train, Inc., to transport tourists through the vineyards of Napa Valley. The train usually includes 6 to 8 modern lounge and dinning cars.

John worked at various times as: Brakeman, Carpenter, Conductor, Lineman and Switchman at various times for: Western Pacific RR, Pacific Electric RR, Union Pacific RR, OWR & N RR, San Pedro Los Angeles & Salt Lake RR, OSL RR, Northwestern Pacific RR, Sacramento Northern RR, Atchison,Topeka & Santa Fe RR, Southern Pacific RR, Denver & Rio Grande Western RR, Northern Pacific RR, Chicago, Milwaukee & St. Paul RR, Great Northern RR, Chicago Great Western RR, Chicago Burlington & Quincy RR as well as the San Francisco, Napa & Calistoga RR.

At the time of his retirement in September 1947, John was working for the Western Pacific Railroad in Oakland. Here he was known as "Hard Hat" Johnson. After his retirment, he and Rose moved to the village of Manton, near Red Bluff, Tehama County, California where he was known as "Jack". John transferred to the Vesper Lodge # 84, in Red Bluff. John served as Secretary of the Manton Grange for 5 years.

In February - March 1953, John began to receive treatment at the University of California (Berkeley?) for a "tumor", he weighed 140 pounds. Rose did most of the work around the house. In August 1953, he was in the UC hospital again. This time for a "bursted bladder". He was in the hospital for 5 weeks. His weight was down to 125 pounds.

At the time of his death, John and Rose were renting their home from a Mr. Olson, a friend and local merchant. John's paul bearers were Harry Sitton & Walter Dale of Red Bluff. Both John's and Rose's graves are marked with a small bronze marker.
