Bremen to Baltimore, arrived 30 Apr 1890, with older sister, Etta. Settled in Lee Co. [Did the family have relatives or friends there?] Parents and two younger siblings came later.

Check for spellings of surname. Her maiden name was spelled "Kahler" on marriage certificate.

Filed for divorce on 7 Feb 1925 in Black Hawk Co., IA, on grounds of . Divorce granted to Katherine on 4 March 1924. NOTE: on 4/4/2016 I went to BHC court house to look at divorce file, but was told it's not in storage -- probably among the records lost in the 2008 floods.

1930 census - (see John Landau census image on file) - Charles W. Champlin & Katherine

OBIT (Waterloo Daily Courier, 11 Feb 1947): Mrs. Katherine Champlin
Mrs. Katherine Landau Champlin, 69, of 413 East First Street, died Monday at 5:30 p.m. in St. Francis Hospital of hardening of the arteries and complications.

Funeral services will be conducted Thursday at 2:30 p.m. at the Peace Evangelical and Reformed church at Fredericksburg, IA., by Rev. P. Weltge, pastor. A prayer service will precede at 12:30 p.m. here in O'Keefe & Towne funeral home. Burial will be in the Rose Hill cemetery at Fredericksburg.

Born on Mar. 20, 1877 at Rotenburg, Germany, she was the daughter of Frederick and Margaret Koehler. The family came to this country in 1890 and settled in Ashton, IL. On July 11, 1894, she was married at Lee Center, IL., to Henry W. Landau. They were divorced. She was remarried on July 23, 1925, in Waterloo to Charles W. Champlin. He died here June 28, 1935. She was the member of the Fredericksburg church.

Nine children by the first marriage survive, including seven sons, Jerome, 2459 Iowa Street, Cedar Falls; Everett, 819 Hawthorne Avenue; Clarence, 321 Williston Avenue; Wilbert, 1139 Longfellow Avenue; John, Route 6; Carl, 413 East First Street; and Frank, 413 Allen Street; two daughters, Mrs. Vera Ladwig and Mrs. Mata Steege, both of Fredericksburg; 20 grandchildren, and 2 great grandchildren. ~

NOTE: in the 1900 Federal Census for Decatur Co., IA, the Landau family includes a 12 yr old, New York born, Christopher Spellman, with the notation: "Expect to Adopt." But, he disappeared from the family's records after that. But then I stumbled upon:

http://iagenweb.org/history/orphans/riders/MH_IAOTR.htm which lists an Orphan Train Rider by that name who was adopted by John Heiselbetz of Waterloo. But that's all.
