

NHT P. A-4 Norma J. Luck 1-21-00

NEW HAMPTON -- Norma J. Luck, 66, New Hampton, died Saturday evening, Jan. 15 at Covenant Medical Center in Waterloo.

Funeral services were held at 10:30 a.m. Wednesday, Jan. 19 at the Hauser Funeral Home in Charles City, with Rev. James Ackerson, Pastor of the Horton Baptist Church, officiating.

Burial was in Sunnyside Memory Gardens south of Charles City.

Visitation was at the funeral home on Tuesday, Jan. 18 from 3-9 p.m. and on Wednesday from 9 a.m. until service time.

Norma Jean Heinselman Luck was born Jan. 31, 1933 at Charles City, the daughter of V. I. and Edith Mae (Fiser) Heinselman. She attended the Charles City schools. On Nov. 28, 1948 she married Clarence L. Luck at Charles City. Norma received a G.E.D. in 1986 from the Business Institute of Technology in Waterloo and then graduated from that institution with a business diploma. She was a lifelong resident of this area. She had been employed at the A&P Egg Candling Station in New Hampton, Dralle's Department Store in Greene, Carson-Pirie-Scott in Waterloo and later as a seamstress and tailor at the Varsity Dry Cleaners, Waterloo, and Palace Clothiers, both in Waterloo and Cedar Falls. Norma retired in 1996. She enjoyed sewing, crocheting, counted cross-stitch and embroidery, crossword and jigsaw puzzles and spending time with her family. She was a peritoneal dialysis patient for the past five and one half years.

Survivors include two children, Connie (Mick) Seifert, Clinton and Chris Luck, South China, ME; two grandchildren, Colleen (Scott) Underwood, Holland, MI and Dan Douglas, New Hampton; six great-grandchildren; a sister, Nona (Ronald) Cummings, Charles City.

Preceding her in death were her parents; her husband, Clarence in 1985; a son, William and a daughter, Carol, both in infancy; a brother, Jack Heinselman; a sister, Betty Friend.
