Find My Family

I've "rescued" an old photograph identified as Tom TUTTLE which was taken at the J. A. Rovaart Studio in Prairie City, Iowa. The photograph appears to have been taken in the 1880's with Tom likely in his 70's at the time. Based on limited research I was able to find the following information in census records:

1870 census of Des Moines Township, Jasper Co., IA:

Thomas TUTTLE, age 63, a Farmer, born Canada

Nancy TUTTLE, age 49, Keeps House, born VA

Edith SWALLOW, age 12, born IN

1880 census of Prairie City, IA:

F. T. TUTTLE, age 73, Farming, born Canada, parents born Canada

Nancy TUTTLE, wife, age 69, House Keeper, born VA, parents born VA

I'm hoping to locate someone from this TUTTLE Family so that the photograph can be returned to the care of family. If you are a member of this family, or you know someone who might be, please contact me.

Thanks, Shelley Cardiel [cardiels@comcast.net]

Road Poll Taxes in Jasper County, 1901-1918, part 3
(For full explanation, see August 2013 Gleaner)

During the early 1900s, Jasper County males paid road poll taxes ranging from $2.00 to $5.00 per person. In Des Moines Township, the residents chose to meet their tax obligations by either performing two days' labor on repairing roads or by paying the poll tax fee in cash.

The list of names below was compiled from a series of Road Poll Tax receipt books thought to be from Des Moines Township only. The list shows males with surnames from "Rose" to "Young" whose name appeared in the books, the years each satisfied his road poll tax obligation, and the manner in which he paid. Every effort has been made to copy names exactly as they appeared in the books. When a name was spelled differently in different years, both spellings are given, separated by a forward slash (/).

A town two farmers built

Locals say this town might never have been but for two ornery farmers, a lousy cattle market and a battle over a liquor license.

The story begins in the late 1950s, founder Cliff Thompson says.

“It all came into being one evening over a bridge game with my brother, Cloyd,” the 83-year-old retired farmer says. “The price of cattle went kaput, way down. We were sitting there playing cards, and we said, ‘Why don’t we sell the cattle and build a golf course?’”

Oakland Acres, about 40 miles east of Des Moines, is the smallest town on Highway 6 and the only one on the route incorporated after the interstate was built.

When a local farmer passed away in the mid-1960s, Cliff and Cloyd bought 80 acres and constructed their nine-hole golf course. Cloyd, a builder, added a few houses. More people flocked to the area after another nine holes were added in 1973. In the late ‘70s, the brothers decided to add a restaurant, the Oak Room.

“Jasper County wouldn’t issue us a liquor license, so we decided to incorporate into a town and issue one ourselves,” Thompson says.

Today, Oakland Acres is some 60 homes and 166 residents strong, but the town still lacks enough people to support small businesses. Hilltop, a nearby roadhouse, shuttered years ago. The Oak Room folded.

Yet, the unlikely town continues to thrive. Another housing development sprouted recently a mile east of the golf course.

“You know what it has turned into?” Cliff says, “A halfway point.”

Couples who work in separate cities nearby – Newton, Grinnell, Marshalltown – have set down roots in the area. The golf course, meanwhile, continues to be a meeting place for friends and family in the area.

Looking back, it’s a funny thing, Cliff Thompson says.

“You know, when we decided to build that course I had never played a game of golf,” he says, chuckling. “We just figured it was something the area needed. As it turned out, it was.”
