

The Jasper County Contingent, just before leaving for the cantonment in July, 1918. The group shown herewith consisted of nearly 250 men, and was the largest body of men to leave Jasper County at one time to join the colors. The picture was taken on the steps of the Methodist Episcopal Church, Newton.