

Jerry Adams, 23

Jerry Ray Adams, son of Roland B. and Norma Weber Adams, was born Nov. 21, 1957 in Harlan. He attended school in Harlan, graduating from Harlan Community high school in 1976. While attending school, he worked for the Burchett's at the Mobil Gas Station in Avoca. In the fall of 1976, he moved to Shenandoah, Texas where he worked for a Gulf Service Station for the next two years. At the time of his illness, he was employed as a cable television foreman for Commco Construction in Spring, Texas.

Jerry was a member of the First United Methodist church in Harlan. He died at the Texas Medical Center in Houston, Texas at the age of 23 years.

He was preceded in death by his father, Roland, on Oct. 22, 1977. He is survived by his mother, Norma of Spring, Texas, his grandfather, Bill Weber of Harlan, four brothers, Larry of Spring, Texas, Steven of Omaha, Neb., Rick of Spring, Texas and Jamie of Denison, nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held at Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan on Sunday, Nov. 15, 1981 with Dr. Larry LaVelle of the First United Methodist church officiating.

Burial was in the Rose Hill cemetery in Kirkman with Rick Musich, Terry Musich, Ronald Daeges, Larry Koester, Clifford Kruse and Charles Hendriksen serving as casketbearers.