

LaVale (Mrs.) Loyal Best, 70

Mar. 10, 1980

SHELBY — Graveside services will be held at the Shelby Cemetery here today (Monday) at 1:30 p.m. for LaVale (Mrs. Loyal) Best of Denver, Colo.

A former resident of the Irwin and Tennant areas, Mrs. Best died Wed., March 5 in Denver.

Surviving are her husband, Loyal, of Denver, Colo.; one daughter, Donna (Mrs. Douglas) Broshears of Aurora, Colo.; one sister, Floy (Mrs. Tracy) Fleming of Aurora, Colo.; and four grandchildren.

Also surviving are three foster-sisters: Mrs. Ida Grace Rushenberg of Harlan, Mabel Monson of Irwin, and Emma Stockland of Grove City, Minn.; and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Warner Thomsen of Tennant.

Raised in Irwin, LaVale Best married and lived for several years at Tennant, where her husband drove a truck for Cox Grain Co., before the Bests moved to Denver.
