

David Boardman, 72

John David Boardman, the son of John Wesley and Harrietta (Stewart) Boardman, was born July 1, 1911, on a farm near Tennant. He grew to adulthood on his parents farm and graduated from Tennant high school in 1929. He then attended the University of Nebraska for two years to study agriculture.

On July 2, 1933, he married Maxine Virginia Heilig DeBord, at Rockport, Mo. Two children were born to this union. After their marriage, they farmed near Tennant, until they retired and moved to Harlan in 1974. He then worked part time at the Brickyard Orchard in Harlan for seven years.

He was a member of the United Methodist church in Tennant and also a member of the Independent Order of Odd Fellows Lodge No. 267 of Harlan. They were also honored to celebrate their 50th wedding anniversary this past July. He died at Jennie Edmundson hospital, Co. Bluffs on Monday, Dec. 19, 1983, having attained the age of 72 years, 6 months and 18 days.

In addition to his parents, he was preceded in death by one sister Charlotte and one brother, Eugene. He is survived by his wife Maxine of Harlan; one son Jim of Portsmouth; one daughter, Sally (Mrs Robert) Dixon of Correctionville; six grandchildren; two brothers, Howard of Leesburg, Fla. and Jesse of Harlan; nieces; nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Dec. 21, 1983 at Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan with Dr. Larry LaVelle of the First United Methodist church in Harlan, officiating.

Burial was in the Shelby cemetery, Shelby, with Lee Lytle, David Dixon, David Gibson, Mark Boardman, Steve Boardman and Wayne Boardman, all serving as casketbearers.

Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan was in charge of arrangements.
