

Ruth Fischer, 65

Ruth, daughter of Theodore and Emma Sommerfledt Farrell, was born Feb. 8, 1918 in Manning. She was graduated from the Manning high school in 1936. On Nov. 18, 1936, she married Elmer Fischer. They have always made their home in Manning.

She had been in failing health and died on Tuesday, March 8, 1983 at St. Anthony hospital, Carroll, at the age of 65 years and 1 month.

Preceding her in death are her parents; two sisters, Bess Olbertz and Delpha Roberts; and by a brother Warren Farrell. She is survived by her husband, Elmer, of Manning, by two sons Warren Fischer and his wife Charlotte, Robert Fischer and his wife Diana of Carroll; by two daughters, Kathleen, Mrs Chuck Coleman, Manning and Janet, Mrs Richard Plumb, of Kirkman. Also surviving are seven grandchildren; a sister, Nellie, Mrs Delton McNutt, Manning; and a brother, Leonard Farrell of Manning.

Funeral services were held at Zion Lutheran church in Manning on Friday, March 11, 1983 with Pastor Edward F. Heinicke, officiating. Burial was in the Manning City cemetery with Gary McNutt, Earl Hoffmann, Mark McNutt, Fred Pistone, Joe Eischeid and David Olbertz serving as casketbearers. Honorary casketbearers were her grandsons, Troy Fischer, Gale Fischer, Jerry Fischer and Jeremy Plumb.

Ohde Funeral Home in Manning was in charge of arrangements.