

Henry A. Greiner, 51

1979

NEOLA — Henry A. Greiner, born at Portsmouth and a farmer in the Neola area, was pronounced dead on arrival Monday at a Council Bluffs hospital after suffering an apparent heart attack at his farm home. He was 51.

Funeral Mass was held Wednesday morning here at St. Patrick's Church, Neola, with the Rev. Lawrence Beeson as celebrant. Interment was at St. Patrick's Cemetery.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Helen; two sons, Tom of Neola and Michael of Casper, Wyo.; two daughters, Karen Ward and Kathleen Wollenhaupt, both of Neola; four brothers, John, Alvin and Alfred, all of Persia, and Lawrence of Silver City; three sisters, Anna Mae Cordoza of Pleasanton, Calif., Helen Plambeck and Mildred Weihs, both of Persia; and two grandchildren.