

Rose T. Haberl, 82

Rose Theresa Haberl, the daughter of George and Ann Vogel Dozler was born on April 2, 1903 on a farm near Templeton. She died on Wednesday, Aug. 21, 1985 at the ville de Sante Nursing Home in Omaha, at age 82 years, four months and 19 days.

She was baptized at Sacred Heart Catholic church in Templeton. Later she moved with her parents to Elgin, Neb., where she received her First Communion and was confirmed at St. Boniface Catholic church. She attended St. Boniface Catholic school in Elgin, and as a young girl moved with her parents to Oregon. After living there for seven years, Rose returned to Iowa with her parents.

On Sept. 5, 1933, she married Henry G. Haberl at Granite Falls, Minn. Three children were born to this union. After they were married, they farmed south of Manning until 1942 when they moved to a farm near Manilla. They farmed here until 1971 when they retired and moved to Harlan. On March 29, 1979, Mr Haberl died. She then became a resident of the Ville de Sante Nursing Home in Omaha. This has been her home since that time.

In addition to her parents and husband, she was also preceded in death by one brother, George. She is survived by one son, Eugene Haberl of La Crescenta, Calif.; two daughters, Imogene (Mrs Francis) McGovern and Inez Ann Haberl both of Omaha; five grandchildren; two brothers, Adolph Dozler of Eldorado Springs, Mo., and Leo Dozler of Granite Falls, Minn.; four sisters, Cecelia Halverson of St. Peter's, Minn.; Anne Kietzman and Alma Dyr Dahl both of Granite Falls, Minn. and Bertha Lauson of Marietto, Minn.; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

A Mass of Christian burial was celebrated on Saturday, Aug. 24, 1985, at St. Michael's Catholic church in Harlan, with the Rev. Lawrence Beeson as the Celebrant. Burial was in the Harlan cemetery, Harlan with Tim McGovern, Mark Krajieck, Edwin Haberl, Paul McGovern, George Dozler and James McGovern serving as casketbearers.

Pauley Funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.
