

Leona Hamann, 79

Persia — Leona Hamann, daughter of Charles and Augusta Hamann was born Dec. 22, 1900 in Persia. She lived all her life in the Persia area until 1970 when she went to the Little Flower Haven, Earling to make her home. She was a 50 years member of the Eastern Star and a 50 year and lifetime member of the American Legion Auxiliary at Persia. She died Tuesday, July 29, 1980 at Myrtue Memorial hospital in Harlan a' age 79 years.

Survivors include two sisters, Mrs Fred (Bertha) Harmsen of Persia and Mrs Freeda Chapman of the Baptist Memorial Home in Harlan, nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Friday, Aug. 1, 1980 at the Persia United Methodist church in Persia with Rev. Donald McQuinn of Co. Bluffs, officiating. Burial was in Valley View cemetery with Charles Paladino, Dr. Marvin Dvorak, Kent Floerchinger, Larry Watson, Phil Floerchinger and Don Hamann serving as casketbearers.

Schumacher Funeral Home of Logan was in charge of the arrangements.
