

1983

Uriah Scott Holloway, 94

Scott Holloway, the son of Jasper and Nancy Bowen Holloway was born July 14, 1889, on a farm in Harrison co., Mo. He attended country school and grew to adulthood on his parents farm in Mo.

In 1914, he married Ethel York. Two children were born to this union. After their marriage, they farmed until Ethel died in 1920.

On Jan. 17, 1922, he married Lucile Davenport at Clarinda. 11 children were born to this union. After their marriage, they farmed near Pawnee in Harrison co., Mo., until 1934, when they moved to Shelby co. They farmed near Harlan until 1941, when they moved to another farm near Irwin. He retired from farming shortly after 1960, but continued to buy land and cattle until a few years ago. After retiring from farming, they continued to live on the farm and spent their winters in Phoenix, Ariz. for 20 years. In 1980, they moved into Irwin, and this has been their home since that time. The Holloways were honored to celebrate their 60th wedding anniversary on Jan. 17, 1982. He died at the Manning General hospital on Aug. 30, 1983, at the age of 94 years, 1 month and 16 days.

In addition to his parents and first wife, he was preceded in death by three sons, Donald, James and Robert; four brothers and also two sisters. He is survived by his wife, Lucile of Irwin; five daughters, Doris (Mrs Garland) Grabill and Alberta (Mrs Harry) Dreier, both of Audubon, Luella (Mrs Wayne) Reynolds of Lamoni, Nora (Mrs Vernon) Campbell of Irwin and Janice Holloway of Phoenix, Ariz.; five sons, O.E. "Buck" and Fred, both of Kirkman; Tom of Irwin and Junior and Gary, both of Defiance; 49 grandchildren; 83 great grandchildren and 8 great great grandchildren; one brother, James A. Holloway of Eagleville, Mo.; nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Thursday, Sept. 1, 1983 at Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan with Rev. Leon Wallace of the Irwin United Methodist church and Elder Jimmy Andersen of Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints, both officiating.

Burial was in the Rose Hill cemetery, Kirkman with Keith Grabill, Bill Holloway, John Holloway, Scott Dreier, Fevin Holloway and Dan Holloway serving as casketbearers.

Pauley Funeral Home in Harlan was in charge of arrangements.