

THE LIFE STORY OF —

Mildred C. Ingwersen, 82

Mildred Celeste Ingwersen, the daughter of George and Anna (McCulley) McLarnon on March 23, 1901, in College Springs. As a young child, she was baptized at the United Presbyterian church in College Springs. She attended school and graduated from Amity high school in College Springs.

After graduating from high school, she went on to teach school at Clarinda and Elberon. She also attended two summers of College at Iowa State Teachers college at Cedar Falls. In 1924, she moved to Persia, where she taught school until the spring of 1927.

On June 15, 1927, she married Arthur Ingwersen at College Springs. Two daughters were born to this union. After marriage, they made their home and farmed on a farm two miles north of Persia for 50 years. In 1927 they moved into Persia and have resided there since that time.

She was a member of the Trinity Lutheran church of Persia. They were also honored to celebrate their 55th wedding anniversary on June 15, 1982. She died at Myrtue Memorial hospital in Harlan on Friday, June 3, 1983 at the age of 82 years, 2 months and 11 days.

She was preceded in death by her parents. In addition to her husband Arthur of Persia, she is survived by two daughters, Roberta (Mrs T.L.) Hall of Neola and Peggy (Mrs Charles) Agee of Burkburnett, Texas; eight grandchildren, eight great grandchildren, neices, nephews and other relatives.

Services were held Monday, June 6 at Trinity Lutheran church in Persia with the Rev. Leland Schmidt officiating. Casketbearers were Lynn Grap, C.L. Busch, Vern Oloff, Milton Watson, Larry Elias and Elven Steenbock. Burial was at Valley View cemetery at Persia.

Pauley funeral Home was in charge of arrangements.