

Mrs Clarence Lacy, 67

Audubon — Mrs Clarence (Pearl D.) Lacy, daughter of Henry Jones and Elizabeth Victoria McCall Oakley, was born Oct. 20, 1913. She died at Bishop Clarkson hospital, Omaha on Monday, April 20, 1981 at age 67 years and six months. She attended Guthrie county rural school and graduated from Audubon high school.

On March 4, 1933 she married Clarence Lacy in Elk Point, S.D. This union was blessed with three children. They lived all their married life in Audubon, Crawford and Shelby counties. In 1963 they moved into Audubon and she was a retail clerk in an Audubon business.

She was preceded in death by her parents; one brother, George Oakley, and one sister, Mrs (Mrs Merlin) Lee. Survivors include her husband, her children, Wava (Mrs Jack) Lorenzen of Manning; Donald Lacy of Ashland, Mo.; and Sandra (Mrs LeRoy) Miller of Harlan; nine grandchildren; five great grandchildren; her brother and sisters, Mabel (Mrs Sam) Stewart of Lake City; Willard Oakley of Audubon; Lela (Mrs Clarence) Zinke of Gray and Mrs Louise Griffin of Orient.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, April 22, 1981 at McFadden Funeral Home in Audubon with Rev. Andrew J. Hofer, officiating. Burial was in Maple Grove cemetery in Audubon with Dirk Miller, Mardy Miller, Nathan Lacy, Kyle Lacy, Dean Lorenzen and Daniel Lorenzen serving as casketbearers. Patrick Lacy served as honorary casketbearer.