

LIEWER FUNERAL

1948 TO BE FRIDAY

Funeral services for Peter W. Liewer, father of Editor Edwin Liewer, will be held Friday, July 18 at 9:30 A. M. at the St. Francis de Chantal Catholic church at Randolph. The Rev. Fr. Kaup will officiate at the ceremony and burial will be in the St. Francis cemetery also at Randolph.

Peter W. Liewer was born October 17, 1877 at Carroll, Iowa. Here he grew to manhood and when 13 years of age worked in printing shops in that city, for 3 years. After this time he changed occupations and started as a salesman in a shoe store at Carroll. He followed the shoe and clothing business most all his life and during his life span operated and owned several stores. In 1906 he operated a partnership store with a Mr. Simon at Bloomfield. In 1916 Mr. Liewer segregated partnership with the Bloomfield store, and started and operated his own store at Randolph. He operated the Randolph store for 10 years or until 1926 when the Liewers moved to Hartington. Here Mr. Liewer operated a variety store. In 1930 he sold his business and moved to Yankton where he worked for Montgomery Ward and later for the Robinson Adjustment Co. Two years ago the family moved to South Sioux City, so that Mr. Liewer could be near his work in Sioux City.

Mr. Liewer shortly after moving to South Sioux City started ailing in health and became a victim of a heart ailment. His death occurred at St. Vincint hospital Tuesday evening, July 15.

Mr. Liewer was married in 1909 to Marie M. Book and to the union three children were born, Editor Edwin of Crofton, Walter of Los Altos, California and Sr. M. Pleire (Helen) of La Crosse, Wisconsin. Mrs. Liewer preceded her husband in death in 1919 during the Spanish influenza epidemic. In 1922 Mr. Liewer married Miss Eda Dwyer of Randolph. A son Jack and a daughter Betty were born to this union both living at home.

Peter W. Liewer is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters, also four sisters and one brother, Mrs. Joe O'Herron, of Oregon, Mrs. Tillie Kalb of Oelwein, Ia., Mrs. Anna Loeltz of Hedham, Iowa, Sr. M. Devota, of Lacrosse, Wisconsin and M. T. Liewer of Osmond. Two grandchildren also survive.
