

Edith G. Linden

HARLAN — Edith G. Linden, 88, Tennant, died Sunday at the Harlan hospital.

She was born on a farm near Portsmouth. Mrs. Linden left home when a young girl and by herself homesteaded a farm in the area of Sturgis, S.D., then in 1911 married Oscar Linden. He died in 1933.

Mrs. Linden was a member of the Calvary Baptist Church of Walnut, was a Republican Committee woman, and longtime member of the Farm Bureau.

Survivors include six sons, Darrell and Douglas, both of Harlan, Dana of Cross Junction, Va., Dallas of Tennant, Dewey of Elkhorn, and Duane of Portsmouth; three daughters, Esther Linden of Tennant, Helen Hirschhorn of Livingston, Calif., and Wilma McClure of Kingfield, Maine; two sisters, Anna Johnson of Clarinda and Esther Cox of Shelby; 32 grandchildren and 10 great-grandchildren.

Funeral services will be at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Pauley Funeral Home. The Rev. Max R. Bowling, pastor of the Calvary Church, will officiate. Interment

LINDEN, Edith G.

Council Bluffs, Iowa Nonpareil
Monday August 2, 1976

will be at the Shelby Cemetery.
The family will meet with friends at the Pauley Mortuary from 7 to 9 p.m. this Monday.