

Carl Fred Lorenzen, 80

mar
1983

WALNUT — Services for Carl Fred Lorenzen of Walnut were held Friday afternoon (March 11) at Berthusen-Knutson Funeral Home here. Burial was in Walnut Cemetery.

Lorenzen, 80, died this week at an Atlantic hospital. He lived most of his life in the Walnut area. A road equipment operator for Pottawattamie county until retirement in 1964, he was a caretaker for Walnut Cemetery for several years thereafter.

He is survived by his wife, Juanita; a son, Stanley Lorenzen of Berwick, Ill.; daughters, LaVon (Mrs. Ward) Becht of Burbank, Calif., Ardelle Lorenzen of Walnut, and Janet (Mrs. Robert) Eslick of Bellvue, Colo.; a brother, Fred of Anita; sisters, Josephine Hansen of Yreka, Calif., Mabel Voss and Wilma Sievers, both of Walnut, and LaVena Fuhrman of Fremont, Nebr.; eight grandchildren and a great-grandchild.