

Final Rites Are Held For Daniel R. Mefferd

Final rites were held at the Woodbine R.L.D.S. Church on Sunday, May 8, for Daniel R. Mefferd, 54, who passed away May 6. Elder Elwin Vest officiated at the services.

Music was furnished by George Hood, with Mrs. Max V. Hammitt as organist. Bearers were Harold Carrigan, Howard McLaughlin, Floyd Rief, Robert Brock, John Powley and Arnold Jansen. Final interment was in the Woodbine cemetery.

Daniel Robert Mefferd, son of John and Musette Mefferd, was born on May 3, 1906, in Harrison county, and departed this life on May 6, 1960, at his home near Dunlap.

He leaves to mourn, his wife, Odelia; six sons and three daughters, Daniel John Jr. of Dunlap; Virgil Phillip, Battle Creek; Leslie Andrew, Avoca; Ronald Norman, Battle Creek; Marvin Eugene, Woodbine; Robert Joseph, Bernadine Jane, Marlene Katherine, and Linda Frances, at home. Also seven grandchildren, and seven sisters, Edna Miles, Dunlap; Nell Marley, Logan; Blanche Harris, Woodbine; Ethel Mathews of Brayton; Clara Lewis, Magnolia; Ruby Adamson, Grand Junction; and Flora Benjamin, Woodbine; and a host of relatives and friends survive.

His parents, one brother, two daughters, and one grandson preceded him in death.

Dan, as he was known to all, spent his entire life farming in Harrison county.