

THE LIFE STORY OF —

Orville Michaelson, 69

Kirkman — Orville William Michaelson was born in Kirkman and lived most of his life in Warren and Polk Cos.

He was a farmer and worked in Polk Co. on road maintenance. He also worked for the Agricultural Stabilization and Conservation service. He retired from the Michaelson Service Station.

He was a member of the Avon Community church and Marble Lodge 368 in Carlisle. He died Sunday, Aug. 23, 1981 at Des Moines General hospital.

He was preceded in death by his parents, a brother, Lars and a sister, Dorothy, and also his grandparents. Survivors include his wife Chrystal, a daughter, Yvonne Johnson of Runnells, a brother, Melvin of Des Moines, three sisters, Beulah Evans, Ruth Thompson, and Geneva Schlagel, four grandchildren, and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Wednesday, Aug. 26, 1981 at Richardson Funeral Home in Carlisle with burial in Avon cemetery.