DES MOINES — Angela Olson, daughter of Dennis Olson of Harlan and Cheryl Olson of Des Moines, died of a fractured skull in a freak accident here Monday night, an autopsy report has revealed.

According to a United Press International report, Polk County Medical Examiner Dr. R. C. Wooters announced results of the autopsy Tuesday in the wake of the accident. Wooters initially determined that the ten-year-old had died of neck injuries in the accident outside her mother's apartment Monday evening.

The girl was unconscious and not breathing when fire rescue workers arrived at the scene of the accident.

Other immediate survivors besides her parents include a brother, John of Des Moines; and, from the Shelby county area, a half-sister, Miranda of Harlan; and grandmother, Mrs. Phyllis Olson of Harlan.

Funeral services were held at Hamilton Funeral Home, Des Moines. Burial was in Des Moines.
