JACKSONVILLE — Services for Lamond Petersen of Harlan will be held at 1:30 p.m. today (Saturday) at Bethlehem Lutheran Church here. Burial will be in Jacksonville Cemetery.

Petersen, 32, died early Wednesday (March 9) at Jennie Edmundson Hospital, Council Bluffs, following a sudden illness.

Petersen was pronounced dead at 12:30 a.m. Wednesday at Jennie Edmundson Hospital, Council Bluffs.

Harlan police reported Petersen had suffered an aneurism when the vehicle he was operating collided with an unoccupied, legally-parked vehicle.

The Petersen vehicle, a '75 Ford, collided with a parked '80 Chevrolet owned by Ralph W. Little, Harlan, at 4:20 p.m. Tuesday, just south of Seventh and Durant Sts. Total property damage estimate was placed at $600.

Petersen was unconscious at the scene and transported by Medivac ambulance personnel to Myrtue Memorial Hospital, then transferred to the Council Bluffs hospital.

He was a heavy equipment operator during the past 12 years, and sold welding equipment. He was a 1969 graduate of Harlan Community High School, where he participated in wrestling.

Surviving are his parents, Raymond and Anabelle Petersen, of Rt. 2, Harlan; a brother, Ronald of Audubon; and two sisters, Mrs. Beverly Cox of Valley, Nebr., and Mrs. Marlene Wahl of Omaha.

Burmeister Funeral Home is handling the arrangements in Harlan.
