

Allan Schlueter, 47

1974
Services for a Shelby man, Allan Schlueter, 47, were scheduled for Wednesday in St. Paul Episcopal Church, Harlan, with burial and military rites in Shelby Cemetery.

Mr Schlueter died Wednesday (Sept. 15) of injuries received in a fall in Hartley.

Authorities said Schlueter, 47, had been doing finishing work inside the bin at the Farmers Co-Op Elevator last Saturday when he slipped from scaffolding, falling 77 feet.

Surviving are his wife, Mathilda of Shelby; two sons, Allan Franta of Jacksonville, Fla., and Mike Franta of Schuyler, Neb.; a daughter, Nancy Schmidt of New Mexico; two step-sons, Rodney Polacek and Johnnie Schlueter, both of Shelby; a step-daughter, Carol Fox of Avoca; a sister, Beatrice Godfrey of Stockton, Calif. and six grandchildren.