

The Life Story of --

Mrs William Shephard, 85

Kirkman — Anna Louise

Shephard, daughter of William Albert and Louise Baker Waite, was born Oct. 26, 1888. Most of her childhood was spent in Harrison county, but lived for a time with her family in Missouri and Omaha, Nebr. On April 17, 1907 she married William Shephard in Woodbine. This union was blessed with three children. She lived several years in Pisgah and became a member of the Pisgah United Methodist church. Due to her failing health she went to live with her daughter, Corlyss Parr at Kirkman. Anna died March 19, 1975 at Myrtue Memorial hospital in Harlan at age 85 years and 5 months.

She was preceded in death by her husband and five brothers. Survivors include two sons - Ralph and Clarence of Pisgah; one daughter - Corlyss Parr of Kirkman; two sisters - Mrs Clara Huffaker of Des Moines and Mrs Viola Marek of Manitow Springs, Colo., ten grandchildren; 12 great grandchildren and other relatives.

Funeral services were held on Saturday, Mar. 15, 1975 with White Funeral Home of Woodbine, Ia., in charge of arrangements. Burial was in the Woodbine cemetery.
