

Viola L. Vincent, 72

1986

Viola Lorraine Rasmussen Vincent, daughter of Andrew and Mathilda Otzen Larsen was born July 10, 1914 at Poplar. She was raised in the Poplar area.

Dec. 16, 1933 she married Elmer Rasmussen in Atlantic. He died in 1945 and on July 11, 1947, she married George Vincent at Omaha. She had been a resident of Harlan since 1944 and had been employed at the Saylor Hotel and Baptist Memorial Home. She was baptized and a member of Immanuel Lutheran church. She died at her home in Harlan on Nov. 22, 1986 at age 72 years, 4 months and 12 days.

She was preceded in death by her parents; her first husband, Elmer; two brothers, Elmer and Lawrence Larsen. Survivors include her husband, George of Harlan; two sons, Richard Rasmussen of Minneapolis and Don Vincent of Omaha; two daughters, Delores (Mrs Harold) Wolfe of Lake Zurich, IL. and Darlene (Mrs Merlin) Ramenga of Omaha; brother, Harold Larsen of Audubon and two sisters, Helen Kapaska of Adair and Leona Reese of Coon Rapids. She is also survived by 12 grandchildren, many nieces, nephews and other relatives.

Funeral services were held Nov. 25, 1986 at Immanuel Lutheran church with Rev. Paul Olsen and Rev. Otto Zwanziger, officiating. Burial was in the Union Twp. cemetery at Defiance with Robert Wolfe, Daniel Thomas, Shaun Vincent and Jason Remmenga as honorary bearers and John Wolfe, Steven Wolfe, Ronald Rasmussen and Rodney Rasmussen serving as casketbearers. Services were conducted by the Burmeister Funeral Home.