

Hal B. Wyland, 71

Nicollet, Minn. — Services for Hal Babcock Wyland, 71, of Nicollet, Minn., who died Nov. 29 at University Hospital, Minneapolis, were held Dec. 1 at the Belgrade United Methodist Church, North Mankato. Burial was in Grandview Memorial Gardens.

He was born April 14, 1907 in Carrington, N.D. and moved with his parents, Ralph W. and Estella G. (Babcock) Wyland to Shelby County. He graduated from Harlan high school. After graduating from college in Pharmacy he worked at Levendahl's Drug Store. Aug. 3, 1929 he married Gertrude Night in Harlan. They moved to Storm Lake where he was employed as a pharmacist.

He was a resident of North Mankato, Minn., from 1944 to 1949, and then purchased the drug store in Nicollet. He worked as a pharmacist there until 1964 when he became pharmacist at the St. Peter State Hospital, retiring in 1972.

Survivors include his wife, Gertrude; one son, Donald Wyland of Gaylord, Minn.; two sisters, Mary Elizabeth Hynes, Winnebago, Minn. and Evelyn Peer, Des Moines, two grandchildren, three nieces and four nephews.

————— 1979