

January 12-43

Dear Mother:

I've worked until noon today then it rained. That is all the news. I sent my clothes to the cleaners. They will be back tomorrow. 50 cents I think. I got a ~~little~~ package from Albert. Candy & nuts & a fruit cake. it sure was a good one. Some of the boys are sitting because the matrons at the dance kept too close a watch on the girls. Most of the girls were in their teens.

So much for that. I hate to see some thing like that pulled off in a small back woods town like this because it gives them a taste of big city life. One good thing this country is is supposed to be dry.

I also did my wash today

Incidentally we didn't get up until 10 minutes until eight. I always expect that when the boys go out, the boss usually goes out too and he likes to sleep. I am sure I won't get him up. We got to work at about 9 am. I guess that is all the news. I don't know how long we will be on this detail some think for the duration. I don't think it will be that long but by the time that I have been reading one of Wood's books this evening.

Calvary Cross is the name of it.

If I can I am going to church tomorrow evening
I had three cups of tea. That is all the news. I am in good health and feel well.

I guess that's all. I never got any mail today. I imagine that I'll get 2 or 3 letters. I'll Bye for now, remember to give
