

Marilyn "Lynn" Sievers, 79 ✓

April 10, 1927 - March 8, 2007

WALNUT — Marilyn "Lynn" Sievers, daughter of Fred John and Mae Victorine (Hansen) Hazelton, was born April 10, 1927, in Council Bluffs. She attended various schools in Council Bluffs, before her family moved to David City, NE, where she completed her high school education. After high school, she received her teachers training and became a music teacher in Walnut, for a short period of time.

June 27, 1948, Marilyn married Lee Sievers in David City, NE. To this union four daughters were born, Cynthia, Carol, Janet and Nancy. After their marriage, they made their home on a farm near Walnut. Marilyn was baptized and confirmed. She was a very active member of the Peace United Church of Christ in Walnut. Her love of music led her to serve as the choir director for many years. She was a member of Alpha Xi Delta Sorority and the Order of the Eastern Star. After the death of her husband in 1993, Marilyn remained at home in Walnut before making her home at the Colonial Manor Nursing Home in Anita. This is where she died March 8, 2007, at age 79 years, 10 months and 26 days.

In addition to her husband, Marilyn was preceded in death by her parents. She is survived by her daughters, Cynthia (Haeven) Pedersen of Des Moines; Carol Ann (Douglas) Dimig of Atlantic; Janet Lea (Scott) Haddock of Easton, MD; and Nancy Lynn Sievers of Brielle, NJ; eight grandchildren, Tamara Pedersen, Christopher Pedersen, Julie (Robby) Anderson, Scott Dimig (Kimberly), Amy (Jeremy) Lindley, Neal Dimig (Nicole) and Corben Haddock and Devan Haddock still living at home; 12 great grandchildren; three nieces and other relatives.

Funeral services were held March 14, 2007, at the Peace United Church of Christ in Walnut, with Rev. Gail Muckey officiating. An Order of Eastern Star service was also done by the Liberty Chapter No 230 of Marne. Honorary casket bearers were Al Koll, Robert Dierking, Bob Allen, Bob Lafrentz and Dale Ploen. Casket bearers were Doug Alff, Allan Sievers, Craig Woltmann, Max Petersen, Chuck Gross and Rex Sievers. Burial was held in the Layton Township Cemetery, Walnut. Pauley Jones Funeral Home in Walnut in charge of arrangements.
