

Frederick P.
"Bud" Stessman, 85

Dec. 27, 1932 - Oct. 23, 2018

SHEBOYGAN, WI – Frederick P. "Bud" Stessman was born December 27, 1932 in Panama to Frederick W. and Caroline (Willmes) Stessman. He attended local schools before joining the U.S. Army in 1953. He worked many jobs over the years including at the oil refinery, as a long distance truck driver, an auto mechanic, and 27 years at Kohler Company, retiring in 1995. Bud was a very good handyman and do-it-yourselfer, always lending his skills when needed. He loved the outdoors and photographing nature, was a talented woodworker, and won numerous awards in trap, skeet and sporting clays.

Bud passed away Tuesday, Oct 23, 2018 at his home.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and a sister Rose Mangiameli.

Bud is survived by his children; Timothy (Diane) Stessman, Tama (Scott) Gluck and Teresa Kobelt; his four grandchildren; Eric Kobelt, Julia Kobelt, Olivia Gluck and Owen Gluck, his siblings, David (Janice) Stessman, Charlene (Allen) Twark, Jeanette (Richard) Bolamperti, Colleen (Larry) Graeve, Carolyn (Hank) Nykaza, Joan (Claudio) Gonzales, Dennis (Cathy) Stessman, Duane (JoAnn) Stessman, and many nieces and nephews.

A memorial service for Bud was held at 1 P.M. Thursday, November 1, 2018 at the Olson Funeral Home & Cremation Service, 1132 Superior Ave., Sheboygan. Family and friends were received at the funeral home from 11:00 A.M. until the time of service.

A memorial fund has been established in Bud's name.