HARLAN — Michael Dean Stinn, son of Wilfred Joseph and Arlene Marie (Sick) Stinn, was born on August 14, 1957 in Harlan. He was raised outside of Portsmouth and attended elementary school in Cass Township near Portsmouth. He then attended school in Harlan where he graduated from Harlan Community High School with the class of 1975. After high school, Mike moved to Omaha where he where he worked with his buddy Danny Bauman. He then worked at Oakland Foods in Oakland for a few years.

April 19, 1980, Mike was united in marriage to Teresa Jo Chadwick in Harlan. To this union two sons were born: Justin and Daniel. Mike then worked for Western Engineering before working for Larry Patten doing masonry work. Mike also worked for Marian Maiwald before teaming up with Craig Stahl forming S & S Masonry and taking over for Larry Patten when he retired. Mike also spent several winters working for Remington Seeds outside of Harlan. Mike loved spending time with his family especially riding his Harley Davidson with his two boys; playing cribbage and fishing trips to Minnesota every year with his brothers and friends. He loved the Chicago Bears football team and planted a huge garden every year and spent a lot of time tending to it. Mike died on January 10, 2015 at the Myrtue Medical Center in Harlan having attained the age of fifty-seven years, four months and twenty-seven days.

In addition to his parents, Mike was preceded in death by his wife Teresa and two sisters: Janice Stuhr and Joyce Miller. He is survived by his sons Justin Stinn and his wife Holly and Daniel Stinn and his granddaughters Anna and Edyn Stinn all of Harlan; his brothers and sisters: Carolyn and her husband Max Nelson of Persia; Lee Stinn and his wife Kathy Stinn of Harlan; Jean and her husband Craig Stahl of Harlan; Bill Stinn and his wife Tami of Westphalia; Ann and her husband Dennis Andersen of Harlan and his brother-in-law Alan Miller of Persia; nieces and nephews; other relatives and many friends.

Pastor Joe Pennington officiated the 1:00 p.m. funeral service on Wednesday, January 14, 2015 at Pauley Jones Funeral Home in Harlan. Serving as casket bearers were Jerry Stinn, Tommy Stinn, Jake Stinn, Devin Stahl, Jessie Andersen, and Ted Nelson. Burial was held at the Harlan Cemetery.
